Gunton Hall, Gunton Avenue, Lowestoft,
Suffolk, NR32 5DF

Rocky Athas

FEATURING ROCKY ATHAS

Texan blues legend Rocky Athas started playing guitar at school with good friend Stevie Ray Vaughan. By age 23, he was honoured as one of Texas' Ten Best guitarists. Thin Lizzy have even written a song about him ('Cocky Rocky')! At Gunton Hall Rocky will be raising the roof with his all Texan band including superb singer Larry Samford. Not to be missed!

BAD INFLUENCE

Boogie on down to a gutsy mix of blues rock and R&B fronted by powerful singer Val Cowell and sensational guitarist Richard Hayes. Mixing original songs with classics from Janis Joplin through to ZZ Top, Bad Influence never fail to keep the dance floor full!

Dr JJ

DR JJs BLUES BAND

Led by flamboyant frontman Dr JJ on raw and raunchy vocals, with guitar ace Tommy Allen and popular bass player Barry Pethers, this highly entertaining band plays an all-rocking mix of original and classic blues. Audience participation guaranteed!

BIG DEZ

From France, the fabulous five-piece Big Dez play funky, contemporary blues led by Phil Fernandez on guitar and vocals, with a red-hot line-up including Bala Pradal on keyboards, Marco Schaella on blues harp, Lamine Guerfi on bass and Stephane Miñana on drums. Phil Fernandez took several trips to the US to help him create his unique style, jamming with such players as Luther Allison, Billy Branch, WC Clark...

SEAN WEBSTER BAND

Sean Webster is the frontman guitar vocalist for this powerful 3 piece band with a fast-growing reputation on the British Blues and rock scene, thanks largely to Sean's husky blues voice and guitar wizardry. Founded in June of 2003, theirs is a sound that comprises a sharp sense of song writing and a strong feel for the contemporary blues rock of the current era. One of the brightest new talents on the scene today!

Groove Doctors

GROOVE DOCTORS

The Groove Doctors will keep you on the dance floor with a mixture of self penned swings, shuffles and good time grooves. The Docs boast one of the neatest rhythm sections around including Fergie Fulton on bass, plus superb guitarist Tim Ainslie and singer/harp player Luke Arnold. 'Sensational' Blues in Britain.

KENO KINGS

The Keno Kings play an entertaining mix of Rhythm & Blues, Jump Blues and Swing, with a hint of 'Thames Delta', all lovingly blended into a spicy R&B gumbo. The result is highly entertaining and danceable R&B, played from the heart. Something for everyone!
