Sunday

Dance Classes in The Chatsworth Suite:

10.30 – 11.30 Collegiate Shag with Mike & Mel

Collegiate Shag was first popular in the late 1920's and pre-dates the Lindy Hop. It is a fun swing style using 6 beat footwork involving hops and kicks and breaks. Often danced to quicker tempos.

11.35 – 12.35 Charleston with Steve & Tara

Steve & Tara will teach the basics with a few variations to suit beginner to improver level.

12.45 – 1.45 Improvers Lindy Hop with Alan & Lisa

With a wide knowledge of all aspects of Lindy Hop, Alan & Lisa can develop your skills of understanding how six and eight count moves work, as it's no good learning the moves if you can't make them work on the social dancefloor. Aimed at those who know both 6 and 8 count footwork basics.

1.55 – 2.55 Peabody with Mike & Mel

A brilliant and fun ragtime dance loved by swing dancers at the Savoy Ballroom. Lively and easy to learn. It evolved into the modern Quick Step.

2.55 – 3.55 Ron's Routine with Steve & Tara

A choreographed routine based on Charleston and Jazz moves that can be incorporated into your lindy dance, ideal for dancers with some lindy experience.

The Arlington Room

Chill out to a selection of dance music

11.00 – 3.30

Dance Classes in The Arlington Room

4.00 – 5.00 Slow Bal with Alan & Lisa

When it's too slow for Lindy Hop, Slow Balboa is ideal. A great chance to learn this lesser known swing dance originating in California in the late 1940's. Danced to slower tracks, including smoochers and blues. No partner or experience required. This is a great dancer's dance, a good one to have under your belt!

5.00 – 6.00 Tango with Mike & Mel

The Argentine Tango is a fiery, dramatic dance that expresses the dancers' deepest passions through intense, sharp and powerful movements. We will introduce you to some fundamental footwork patterns and shapes while exploring the ability to dance in harmony.

DJ Earl Jackson (MC/DJ)

8.00 - 8.30

Jim Hammond's Jumping Jamboree

8.30 - 10.00

King Pleasure & The Biscuit Boys

10.30 – 12.00

The Arlington Room

Late night record hop with Earl Jackson

Midnight onwards
